

Great Victory PIANO SALE!

We are celebrating the winning of war by selling 100 Pianos and Player Pianos at lower prices than any dealer in the state of Missouri. Our plan is to place 50 Pianos in silent homes where music never reigned before, and 50 Player Pianos in homes where they are too old to learn music.

In this great Victory Sale you will find Pianos at all prices, from $90, $110, $125, $150 and up.

Player Pianos sold at a Big Discount during this great Victory Sale. Cash or Payments—Liberty Bonds accepted same as cash.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY YOUR PIANO

Chairman Cummins of the Democratic national committee will attend the meeting.

The senate has endorsed a measure requiring county recorders to record free the discharges of all sailors, soldiers and marines.

The corporation franchise tax will be increased from 75 cents on the $1,000 to $1.00. Senator Bowker has this bill in charge. It is a part of Governor Gardner's revenue program. It was engrossed without amendment.

Amended the Measure
 The house has engrossed a bill amending the inheritance tax law which provides that no tax be levied against bequests to religious, educational and charitable organizations.

The eight-hour working day for women was killed in the house by the adoption of an amendment for a nine-hour day and was adopted by a vote of 66 to 26. The bill was then placed on the informal calendar but has since been revived.

The bone-dry bill endorsed by the Anti-Saloon League was up in the senate, but re-referred to committee. The committee sent it out without recommendation. It is probable that the bill will be redrawn and some of the more drastic features removed. The measure carries the search and seizure clause.

The house has engrossed a bill requiring girls under 16 to secure consent for marriage from the circuit or probate court in addition to that of their parents. The age of majority for women is increased from 18 to 21 years in another measure.

Can Use School Houses
 The use of country school houses for public meetings will be available in the event of a measure which provides that they "shall" instead of "may" be used for such purposes, passed.

A new disqualification for voters will be written into the statutes of Missouri, if the bill engrossed in the senate without opposition is enacted. Young's measure amends section 1380 of the Revised Statutes, dealing with the qualification of voters, by adding to the disqualifications carried in the section conscientious objectors, persons guilty of espionage under the laws of the United States, persons who have evaded military or naval service in any branch of the army or navy, by fraud, perjury or absconding himself, or may have aided or abetted any other person to evade military or naval service in the war between the United States and Germany, declared in 1917. Conviction in any court of any of the charges mentioned shall be conclusive evidence against any person, but any other evidence may be admitted to substantiate the charge.

"BUT MOTHER DON'T"

And That Was How the Young Man Broke Into the Service.

General C. C. Williams, chief of ordnance, said at a Washington dinner party:

"The pluck of our boys is tremendous. If you ever hear anything suggestive of funk on the doughboy's part you can rest assured that investigation will clear it up."

"I'd like to volunteer for the infantry, but mother won't let me."

"What?" said a listener, "a big six-footer like you, and your mother won't let you?"

"No," said the young man calmly; "so I've volunteered for mine sweeping."

"Mine sweeping? Good gracious! that is more dangerous than infantry by a darn sight."

"I know it is," said the young fellow, "but mother don't."

The soldier who comes back with the report that he came through without a scratch must have had more than usual luck in dodging cooties.—Atchison County Mail.

TO BE REMEMBERED

Days That Will Always Be Green in the Memory of Little Bobbie.

The day he won a pie-eating contest, and about a quarter of an hour afterwards—wished he had never even heard of pie.

The day he took three of the parlor sofa cushions along to the playground, for use as first, second and third base, respectively.

The day a brand new truck arrived at the fire-house across the street, and his friend, the captain, permitted him to accompany the crew on a trial run.

The day he was tired by the strains of a passing band to jump from the window of the bathroom, where he had been sent for his weekly ablutions; and in his excitement—forgot to turn off the water.

The day he shot "craps" with a gang of newboys; and just when it was his turn to roll, became suddenly aware of the immediate proximity of Aunt Prudence.

The day Uncle Bill presented him with a jack-knife—but omitted to caution him against trying it out on the rear porch.

The day he caught his first fish. The day he helped Aunt Mary weed her garden, and was rewarded with a huge bowl of strawberry ice cream and a dollar bill.

The day the schoolhouse burned down.

The day he was sent to the drug store for a bottle of castor oil, but was informed by the clerk that there would be none in stock for some time.

The day of days when—to square off old scores—he reached across the table after dinner, and handed the minister a snap-shot he had secretly taken of Aunt Prudence as she was fanning her hair dry.

THE MEANEST MAN

But This Particular One Does Not Live in St. Joseph

"It is remarkable," said Mr. Gruntler, "how mean some people are! I had with me on a fishing trip two friends, who evidently were familiar with my reputation as an angler. Before starting, one of them made the following suggestion: 'We will agree that the first one who catches a fish must treat the crowd.' I assented to this and we started. Now, don't you know, those two fellows both had a bite and were too mean to pull them up!"

"I suppose you lost, then?" remarked the friend.

"Oh no," replied Gruntler, "I didn't have any bait on my hook."

THEY CERTAINLY WOULD

Said an Irish leader: "Min, ye are on the verge of battle; will ye fight or will ye run?"

"We will!" came a chorus of eager replies.

"Which will ye do?" says he.

"We will not," says they.

"Thank ye, min," says he, "I thought ye would."

A CHANGE OF HEART

Vicar's Daughter—I'm sorry to hear you were at the Methodist tea meeting, Miss Jones. I cannot think what argument has caused you to change your creed.

Miss Jones—Well, miss, first it was their sultana cake, but it was their 'am sangeidges as converted me, miss!

GROWCHER'S NEW ARGUMENT

"So you approve the government's action in taking over the railroads?"

"Yep," replied Mr. Growcher. "I approve for several reasons, one of them being that now a lot of people can quit lecturing on the subject and go to work."
